

The Arc[®]

Mid-Michigan

Empowering people with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities

Achieve with us.

The Arc of Mid-Michigan's summer day camp is designed for teens and adults, ages 13 and up, with intellectual and developmental disabilities. (anyone requiring one-on-one assistance will need to be accompanied by staff)

At camp everyone will have fun while making new friends, building new skills, and growing their independence. Give your loved one an experience that will last a lifetime! This experience is built around the wonderful qualities of our members. It gives them the opportunity to focus on their various abilities rather than their disabilities, we accomplish this idea by showing our participants their potential. Camp provides them with opportunities to influence their community and see the impact that they have made by becoming contributing citizens.

As a result our community will also become more aware, accepting and welcoming of those that have unique and different abilities. Community inclusion is part of our summer camp activities.

Camp participants will expand their current abilities, discover and improve upon new skills, explore their natural leadership abilities, as well as learn to display, support and accept leadership skills within themselves as well as their peers.

Family Opportunities

Field trips: Family members are more than welcome to come with us on our field trips. Family and Friends that join us on the field trip will be required to pay their own admission to the facility and will need to provide their own transportation.

Family Picnic: During the last week of summer camp, we want to invite you to our picnic. This is our way of saying thank you to our participants, family members, volunteers, and friends that made camp possible.

Camp Days
